Who Must File a Return?

Whether you must file a return depends on your gross income, filing status, and age.

Gross Income

Gross income includes all income that you receive in the form of money, goods, property, and services. It does not include any income that is tax-exempt.

Filing Status

Your filing status is determined on the last day of the tax year, which is December 31 for calendar year taxpayers. Your filing status will be determined by whether you are single or married, and what your family situation is.

(Please see reverse side)

Age

If you are age 65 or older on the last day of the tax year, you are allowed a higher amount of gross income before you are required to file a return. The table below lists the income limit amounts for the 2020 tax year.

If your parents (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent, use this table to see if you must file a return. (See Table 1-3 for other situations when you must file.)

In this table, unearned income includes taxable interest, ordinary dividends, and capital gain distributions. It also includes unemployment compensation, taxable social security benefits, pensions, annuities, and distributions of unearned income from a trust. Earned income includes salaries, wages, tips, professional fees, and taxable scholarship and fellowship grants. (See Scholarships and fellowships in chapter 12.) Gross income is the total of your earned and unearned income.

Single dependents—Were you either age 65 or older or blind?

No. You must file a return if any of the following apply.

- Your unearned income was more than $1,100.
- Your earned income was more than $12,550.
- Your gross income was more than the larger of:
 - $1,100, or
 - Your earned income (up to $12,200) plus $350.

Yes. You must file a return if any of the following apply.

- Your unearned income was more than $2,800 ($4,500 if 65 or older and blind).
- Your earned income was more than $14,250 ($15,950 if 65 or older and blind).
- Your gross income was more than the larger of:
 - $2,800 ($4,500 if 65 or older and blind), or
 - Your earned income (up to $12,200) plus $2,050 ($3,750 if 65 or older and blind).

If your filing status is ...	and at the end of the year you were ...*	you must file if your gross income is at least ...
Single	under 65	$12,550
	65 or older	$14,250
Married Filing Jointly	under 65 (both spouses)	$25,100
	65 or older (one spouse)	$26,450
	65 or older (both spouses)	$27,800
Married Filing Separately	any age	$5.00
Head of Household	under 65	$18,800
	65 or older	$20,500
Qualifying Widow(er) with Dependent Child	under 65	$25,100
	65 or older	$26,450

* If you turn 65 on January 1, 2022, you are considered to be age 65 at the end of 2021.

 Gross income means all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services that is not exempt from tax, including any income from sources outside the United States (even if you may exclude part or all of it). Do not include Social Security benefits unless you are married filing a separate return and you lived with your spouse at any time during 2021.

 If you did not live with your spouse at the end of 2021 (or on the date your spouse died) and your gross income was at least $5.00, you must file a return regardless of your age.
