

Fall 2013 Required Training on OSHA's Hazard Communication Standard & New York State's "Right-to-Know" Laws

During the Fall 2013 semester, Farmingdale State College will be providing training to ALL faculty and staff on OSHA's Hazard Communication Standard (HCS) and New York State's "Right-to-Know" laws as follows:

Date	Time	Where
Tuesday, October 29	3:15 p.m. - 4:15 p.m.	Hale Hall, Rm. 222
Friday, November 1	10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.	Gleeson Hall, Rm. 102
Tuesday, November 5	3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.	Gleeson Hall, Rm. 102
Thursday, November 7	11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.	Gleeson Hall, Rm. 104
Monday, November 11	6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.	Whitman Hall, Rm. 150
Tuesday, November 12	6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.	Gleeson Hall, Rm. 102
Wednesday, November 13	2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.	Gleeson Hall, Rm. 104

The information conveyed to employees at this training will include, but is not limited to, the hazards of toxic substances, routes of exposure and target organs, revisions to the HCS with respect to labeling and Safety Data Sheets (SDS's), and employee rights guaranteed by the NYS "Right-to-Know" laws.

Please select one of the sessions offered and email Joanne Ulrich at ulrichj@farmingdale.edu to inform us as to which one you will be attending. Please respond by October 18, 2013.

Questions? Contact Jeff Carter, Environmental Health & Safety Officer at jeff.carter@farmingdale.edu or x2105.