Call for Applications: United Nations Tour

Deadline to apply: October 4, 2024

We are excited to announce an incredible opportunity for students to apply for an immersion trip to the United Nations Headquarter in New York City! This educational immersion trip led by the Nexus Center Office of Community and Civic Engagement will provide participants with a deeper understanding of the United Nations, Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), and learn how these areas serve as interdisciplinary guides to connecting their area of study and civic engagement to larger issues affecting the world.

Trip Details:

- Date: November 1, 2024
- Departure: Farmingdale Long Island Railroad at 9AM
- Expenses: All expenses covered, including lunch!

This is a first come first serve opportunity, so we encourage all interested individuals to apply soon. This trip is generously sponsored by the Office of the Provost and the FSC Students First Campus Grant.

Eligibility:

- Open to all students at FSC
- Limited spots available
- Apply: Scan QR code or visit: <https://forms.office.com/r/U1vSvXJr0k>

Don't miss this chance to engage with global issues and enhance your educational experience!
